

LEGISLATURE IS RECEIVED

Brilliant Throng Entertained at Home of Governor.

Official Honolulu was present last night at the reception given by Governor and Mrs. George R. Carter to the members of the legislature of the Territory of Hawaii. From eight until eleven, the beautiful Carter home on Judd street was filled with a brilliant throng. The bright gowns of the ladies, the glittering uniforms of the army and navy officers, the gold lace of the consular corps with the more sombre background of conventional evening dress made a striking scene. Hundreds of glittering electric lights sparkled like huge jewels among the trees in the spacious grounds. Long strings of incandescents ran from the gate along the borders of the driveway to the corners of the house. Other strings ran around the circular lawn and were festooned over the porte cochere.

Under a giant hau tree the Hawaiian Government band, led by Captain Berger, was stationed and discoursed pleasing music throughout the evening. The Ellis Quintet Club was on the front lawn hidden by a screen of ferns and played many beautiful selections, alternating with the band. The decorations were simple but most effective. Above the entrance to the house were draped the American and Hawaiian flags, while a beautiful arch of palms spanned the front doorway. Within the house ferns, palms and flowers were used. No attempt was made at elaborate decorations but the tasteful effect was most pleasing. The flags of nation and territory were also used about the staircase.

Guests were met at the steps by members of the Governor's staff in full uniform and escorted into the house. Gov. and Mrs. Carter received in the parlor. Secretary Atkinson presenting the guests Mrs. Carter wore a pearl gray panne velvet gown with real lace bertha. After being greeted by the Governor and his wife the guests passed on to the dining room where refreshments were served.

Those present included the members of the senate and house, all territorial officials, officers of the National Guard of Hawaii, Federal officials, the army and navy officers in Honolulu and the consular corps. Most of the officials were accompanied by their wives. Much credit is due to the police department for the excellent way the hacks and carriages were handled. A detail of men were on duty in the grounds and carriages were received and despatched without a hitch.

EWA AND WAIALUA ANNUAL MEETINGS

At the annual meeting of Ewa Plantation Co. yesterday, a net gain of $872,910.38 on the year's operations was shown. There was $400,000 paid in dividends and $70,000 went to reduction of plantation's account, leaving a surplus of $402,910.38. Net assets are put down as $6,324,802.48.

Manager Renton's report shows the 1904 crop to have been 31,185 tons from 3724 acres. About the same size of crop is expected this year. Cold weather has retarded the ripening of this year's crop. Damage by the leaf-hopper to the 1905 crop is no more, if not less, than the cane showed this time last year. Various parasites are being used to fight the pest. The manager says there is every reason to expect a very prosperous year.

Officers were re-elected for the year as follows: E. D. Tenney, president; C. M. Cooke, vice president; C. H. Atherton, secretary; W. A. Bowen, treasurer; W. R. Castle, director; T. R. Robinson, auditor.

Waialua Agricultural Co. held its annual meeting yesterday. Manager W. W. Goodale, in his report, tells of serious damage to the 1905 crop by rust or top-rot. The cane was also affected by the leaf-hopper. They are clearing 600 acres of land for 1907, the crop of which will be from about 4000 acres. The crop of 1904 was 18,882 tons, and that of 1905 is estimated at 19,000 tons. The dam being built at Waialua will have a capacity of two and a half billion gallons. The Waialua ditch is to be 20,749 feet long and capable of carrying 60,000,000 gallons of water each 24 hours, delivering water from the Waialua reservoir at the 740-foot level. With the completion of these works 11,900 acres of land can be irrigated with mountain water. Permanent improvements of the past year cost $93,234.13.

Officers were re-elected, viz.: G. P. Castle, president; C. M. Cooke, vice president; C. H. Atherton, secretary; W. A. Bowen, treasurer; F. J. Lowrey, director; T. Richard Robinson, auditor.

who would consider themselves unfortunate if they could not get them every season. There must be a good reason for this. Good judges of clothing will tell you it lies in the three STEIN-BLOCH words: Style, Fit and Quality.

By Style, we mean the fashion of today, not yesterday. By Fit, we mean clothes that will make you look better than you do now.

By Quality, we mean woollen fabrics from the best domestic and foreign looms, and materials tested and tried by skilled use. No "mercerized" cotton ever enter our doors.
